Subject: Preliminary Identification of Reward Schools for the 2016-17 School Year

Date: April 2016

The purpose of this memo is to inform you that the New York State Education Department (NYSED or “the Department”) has identified Reward Schools for the 2016-17 school year based on 2014-15 school year results.

The list of preliminarily identified Reward Schools is posted to the Information Reporting Services portal at <http://portal.nysed.gov/portal/page/pref/PortalApp>. The 2014-15 assessment data used to identify Reward Schools can be found within the New York State Report Card at: <https://reportcards.nysed.gov/>.

The Department has identified 220 Reward Schools (including 11 Charter Schools) in 100 districts for the 2016-17 school year. Schools that have made the most progress and/or schools that have the highest achievement in the State without significant gaps in student achievement between subgroups were identified as Reward Schools. For more details on the Reward School identification methodology, please visit: <http://www.p12.nysed.gov/accountability/ESEAMaterials.html>. Each Reward School will receive, under separate cover, a Certificate of Recognition from the Commissioner. Title I Reward Schools that have been identified as Reward Schools based on both 2013-14 and 2014-15 school year results are eligible to apply for a Reward School grant, if the school is not currently receiving this grant. More information on these grants will be sent under separate cover to districts that have eligible Reward Schools.

This preliminary data is currently embargoed. However, this information is being provided now so that districts may review the data and determine whether to appeal for the inclusion of a school as a Reward School. Appeals to have schools identified as Reward Schools in your district must be submitted no later than Friday, April 22, 2016 via e-mail to accountinfo@nysed.gov using the attached appeal form (see Attachment A) or download the form at: <http://www.p12.nysed.gov/accountability/ESEAMaterials.html>.

The Department plans to release the list of Reward Schools to the public on Friday, May 6, 2016. Questions concerning the information contained in this memo may be directed to: accountinfo@nysed.gov.

Instructions for Completing the 2016-17 Appeal Form for Identification of a Reward School

Districts may appeal to include a school as a Reward School only if the district can demonstrate that a data error resulted in a school not meeting the Reward School criteria. This form must be completed and certified by the Superintendent (for New York City, the Chancellor). The attached form may also be downloaded at: <http://www.p12.nysed.gov/accountability/ESEAMaterials.html>.

To appeal for the inclusion of a school as a Reward School for the 2016-17 school year, districts must submit a completed, signed, and dated 2016-17 Appeal Form for Identification of a Reward School, with all required supporting evidence. Districts must submit the appeal by Friday, April 22, 2016, requesting that the school be identified as a Reward School for the 2016-17 school year. Appeals may be granted if the district can prove to the satisfaction of the Department that its identification was based on inaccurate computations applied to data in the Student Information Repository System (SIRS) as of the 2014-15 reporting deadline, September 4, 2015.

Resource Documents on Reward School Identification and Data Verification

More details on the data elements used for the Reward School identification is available in the file "PreliminaryRewardSchoolsfor2016-17.xlsx" posted at the Information and Reporting Services (IRS) Portal at <http://portal.nysed.gov/portal/page/pref/PortalApp>.

Districts seeking an appeal for more than one individual school within the district must submit one form per school being appealed. The district must identify the BEDS codes and the reason for the appeal requests, and provide evidence to support the appeal.

Completing the Reward School Identification Appeal Form:

1. Within the designated fields, provide the School's Name, School's BEDS Code, District's Name and BEDS Code.
2. Check the corresponding box next to the appropriate reason for the appeal.
3. Provide a rationale for why the school is a Reward School. The rationale should be brief and based on facts related to the submitted evidence. Note: Excessive details are unnecessary. Please eliminate information that is unrelated to the evidence submitted.
4. Protect personal identification information. Documents submitted to NYSED should not include social security numbers (except the last 4 digits), date of birth, race/ethnicity, disability status, or other non-directory information. Protecting this information from unauthorized access is a legal requirement and is an important priority for NYSED. To ensure the security, if the supporting evidence for your appeal includes any of the sensitive and protected information listed above, please send this evidence to NYSED either (1) via secure ground mail or (2) electronically over the internet via secure file transfer protocol (SFTP). Data sent via e-mail and standard FTP (including FTP sites with password protection) are unencrypted and therefore not secure. Consequently, these methods must not be used to transmit sensitive and protected data.
5. The superintendent (for New York City, the Chancellor) must certify the document and submit it via e-mail to accountinfo@nysed.gov by Friday, April 22, 2016.
