Study the two lessons below.

If at first you don’t succeed, try, try again.

Do not be too quick to judge others.

Write an essay in which you tell which lesson better fits the story "Lydia’s Lasso." Use details from the story to support your answer.

In your answer, be sure to
- choose one of the two lessons
- explain why this lesson is appropriate to the story
- use details from the story to support your answer

Check your writing for correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation.

Lydia was helping her cousin when he was fixing the pond. Her cousin told her to take the pond and go one mile away. So when she went, she saw that there was a cat. She lost her mother, then.

Lydia took here in her hand and said, take it easy and she was feeling good then when she start working. So, she saw the cat was in the cold water. She threw the rope to save her life. After she saved cat's life, she start feeling good that she saved
The cat's life and her uncle and dad was cheering for her. The End.
If you were an animal, would you rather be a catfish or a bird? Write an essay in which you explain your choice. Use details from both "Flights of Fancy" and "A Fish with Whiskers" to support your explanation.

In your answer, be sure to
- describe which animal you would be
- explain your choice
- use details from both articles as support

Check your writing for correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation.

In caper isin to the bird and the fish.

I would want to be a fish. Because the bird is always in the air and I'm scared of heights so that wouldn't be a great idea for me to be a bird. But there is a good thing about being a bird is that you could see the world. All the different colors and living stables in different countries. And back to being a fish that would be so cool being under water being able to see every thing under the water. The catfish is a amazing tip of fish some can walk some can fly and some might think the supper men this is way
I would like to be a catfish in stud of a birdie

Study the two lessons below.

If at first you don’t succeed, try, try again.

Do not be too quick to judge others.

Write an essay in which you tell which lesson better fits the story “Lydia’s Lasso.” Use details from the story to support your answer.

In your answer, be sure to
• choose one of the two lessons
• explain why this lesson is appropriate to the story
• use details from the story to support your answer

Check your writing for correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation.

“Lydia’s Lasso” teaches you a lesson to, not be too quick to judge others. Lydia lesson teaches you this lesson because in the story Lydia’s cousin Musa says that Lydia can get hurt so she can’t help roundup the animals, Lydia goes to the pond and hears a crack when Lydia turned around she saw a newborn calf stuck in the ice. From what Musa taught her how to tie a lasso, She tried to grab the calf in his neck but she can’t so she tries again. The second time she tries she gets the neck and pulls it out of the ice. Their Lidia sees Milka and Uncle Carlos cheering. Milka and Uncle Carlos learn that they did need her help after all. Lidia learns that she can do it and is a heroine.
If you were an animal, would you rather be a catfish or a bird? Write an essay in which you explain your choice. Use details from both “Flights of Fancy” and “A Fish with Whiskers” to support your explanation.

In your answer, be sure to
• describe which animal you would be
• explain your choice
• use details from both articles as support

Check your writing for correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation.

Would I be a catfish or a bird?
I would rather be a bird. I would be a bird because I've always wondered what it's like to fly. Since birds are lightweight the bird can fly. Some of their bones are hollow to be lighter. Also birds don't need to be stuck in the water all day, they can live in the trees or in a bush. Some birds are really fast flyers like pheasants, they fly straight up to get away from enemies. Kind of like a fast get away. There is also birds with really long wings so you can glide for...
Another reason is you are likely to not get eaten by other animals. So you are safer. That's why I would want to be a bird, instead of a cat fish.
Study the two lessons below.

If at first you don’t succeed, try, try again.

Do not be too quick to judge others.

Write an essay in which you tell which lesson better fits the story “Lydia’s Lasso.” Use details from the story to support your answer.

In your answer, be sure to
• choose one of the two lessons
• explain why this lesson is appropriate to the story
• use details from the story to support your answer

Check your writing for correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation.

In the story Lydia’s Lasso there were many lessons but one lesson stuck out the most. This lesson was If at first you don’t succeed, try, try again. This is shown when Lydia doesn’t give up trying to save the calf stuck in the lake. In summary Lydia never gave up which led her to success.
If you were an animal, would you rather be a catfish or a bird? Write an essay in which you explain your choice. Use details from both “Flights of Fancy” and “A Fish with Whiskers” to support your explanation.

In your answer, be sure to
- describe which animal you would be
- explain your choice
- use details from both articles as support

Check your writing for correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation.

I would be a bird because they are peaceful and don’t do any annoying things and they have ways to protect their selves. They also have wings to fly fast. Some birds like eagles have larger wings spread so it helps to fly very fast.
Study the two lessons below.

If at first you don’t succeed, try, try again.

Do not be too quick to judge others.

Write an essay in which you tell which lesson better fits the story “Lydia’s Lasso.” Use details from the story to support your answer.

In your answer, be sure to
• choose one of the two lessons
• explain why this lesson is appropriate to the story
• use details from the story to support your answer

Check your writing for correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation.

I think the lesson if at first you don’t succeed try try again is appropriate because she had to try when she was learning and she had to try again when she was saving the calf and by trying she got to get the privilege of rounding up the cattle with Mike and uncle Carlos. That’s why I think to that if at first you don’t succeed try try again is appropriate for this book.
If you were an animal, would you rather be a catfish or a bird? Write an essay in which you explain your choice. Use details from both “Flights of Fancy” and “A Fish with Whiskers” to support your explanation.

In your answer, be sure to
- describe which animal you would be
- explain your choice
- use details from both articles as support

Check your writing for correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation.

If I could be a catfish or a bird I would be a bird because then I could fly and I always wondered how it feels to fly. Also, I wonder what the birds can see and how the city looks like from up high. I think that it might look like the inside of a cell phone or a remote.
Study the two lessons below.

If at first you don’t succeed, try, try again.

Do not be too quick to judge others.

Write an essay in which you tell which lesson better fits the story “Lydia’s Lasso.” Use details from the story to support your answer.

In your answer, be sure to
• choose one of the two lessons
• explain why this lesson is appropriate to the story
• use details from the story to support your answer

Check your writing for correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation.

I think that the lesson should be If at first you don’t succeed try, try again. I think this because in this story the girl never gives up. In this story this girl is named Lydia and wants to round up cattle with her cousin Mike and her uncle Carlos but they tell her no.

I choose the lesson If at first you don’t succeed try, try again because it fits this story. Lydia is bored at the pond and than she hear the ice break and a calf is in the ice.
If you were an animal, would you rather be a catfish or a bird? Write an essay in which you explain your choice. Use details from both “Flights of Fancy” and “A Fish with Whiskers” to support your explanation.

In your answer, be sure to

• describe which animal you would be
• explain your choice
• use details from both articles as support

I would rather be a bird like a Raven. Catfish are ugly and smell and aren’t my favorite color. Catfish swim and live in water I can’t stand water or swimming. Ravens are black, my favorite color and they can do some arial moves and they hunt their food so much cooler than a stupid fish. I would actually want a Raven for a pet. That is why I would want to be a bird.
6th GRADE WRITING MECHANICS

PRACTICE SET ANSWER KEY

Name: __________________________________________

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>cluster score points</th>
<th>cluster score</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>PS 1</td>
<td>(0-3)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PS 2</td>
<td>(0-3)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PS 3</td>
<td>(0-3)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PS 4</td>
<td>(0-3)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PS 5</td>
<td>(0-3)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>