

OFFICE OF STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

89 Washington Avenue, Room 318-M EB

Phone: (518) 486-6090; Fax: (518) 474-8299

E-mail: StudentSupportServices@mail.nysed.gov; Web: www.p12.nysed.gov/sss

Youth Risk Behavior Survey (YRBS)

The Education Department conducts the YRBS in randomly selected high schools in every odd-numbered year. The YRBS monitors priority high risk behaviors among youth and young adults. This initiative is supported by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

1. Youth Online: High School YRBS – (New York State 2011 and previous year results). CDC data results.

<http://apps.nccd.cdc.gov/youthonline/App/Results.aspx?LID=NY>

2. Youth Risk Behavior Surveillance System (YRBSS) – CDC system that monitors priority health risk behaviors at the national level, and provides resources for the utilization and analysis of YRBS data.

<http://www.cdc.gov/HealthyYouth/yrbs/>