

DID YOU KNOW?

The dates listed below are designated as days of commemoration in Executive Law and U.S. Code:

Updated 5/09

January 6	Haym Salomon Day
February 4 th	Rosa Parks Day
February 15 th	Susan B. Anthony Day
February 16 th	Lithuanian Independence Day
March 4 th	Pulaski Day
March 10 th	Harriet Tubman Day
April 9 th	POW Recognition Day
April 28 th	Workers' Memorial Day
May 1 st	Law Day
The first Tuesday in May	New York State Teacher's day
The first Sunday in June	Children's Day
June 12 th	Women Veterans Recognition Day
June 19 th	Juneteenth Freedom Day or Freedom Day or Emancipation Day
June 25 th	Korean War Veterans Day
August 24 th	Ukrainian Independence Day
September 11 th	September 11 Memorial Day Battle of Plattsburgh Day
September 13 th	John Barry Day, also Uncle Sam Day
September 17 th	Friedrich Wilhelm Von Steuben Memorial Day
September 17th	Constitution Day
The third Friday in September	New York State POW/MIA Recognition Day (if a religious holiday, observance is then conducted on the second Friday of September)
The last Saturday of September	War of 1812 Day
The fourth Saturday of September	Native American Day
The fourth Sunday of September	Gold Star Mothers Day
October 5 th	Raoul Wallenberg Day
October 11 th	New Netherlands Day
October 27 th	Theodore Roosevelt Day
November 9 th	Witness for Tolerance Day
November 12 th	Elizabeth Cady Stanton Day
November 30 th	Shirley Chisholm Day
December 7 th	Pearl Harbor Day
December 16 th	Bastogne Day and Asian New Year