

Brief overview of the NYSED Office of Special Education (OSE) Educational Partnership

Technical Assistance Partnerships (TAP)

What is a TAP?

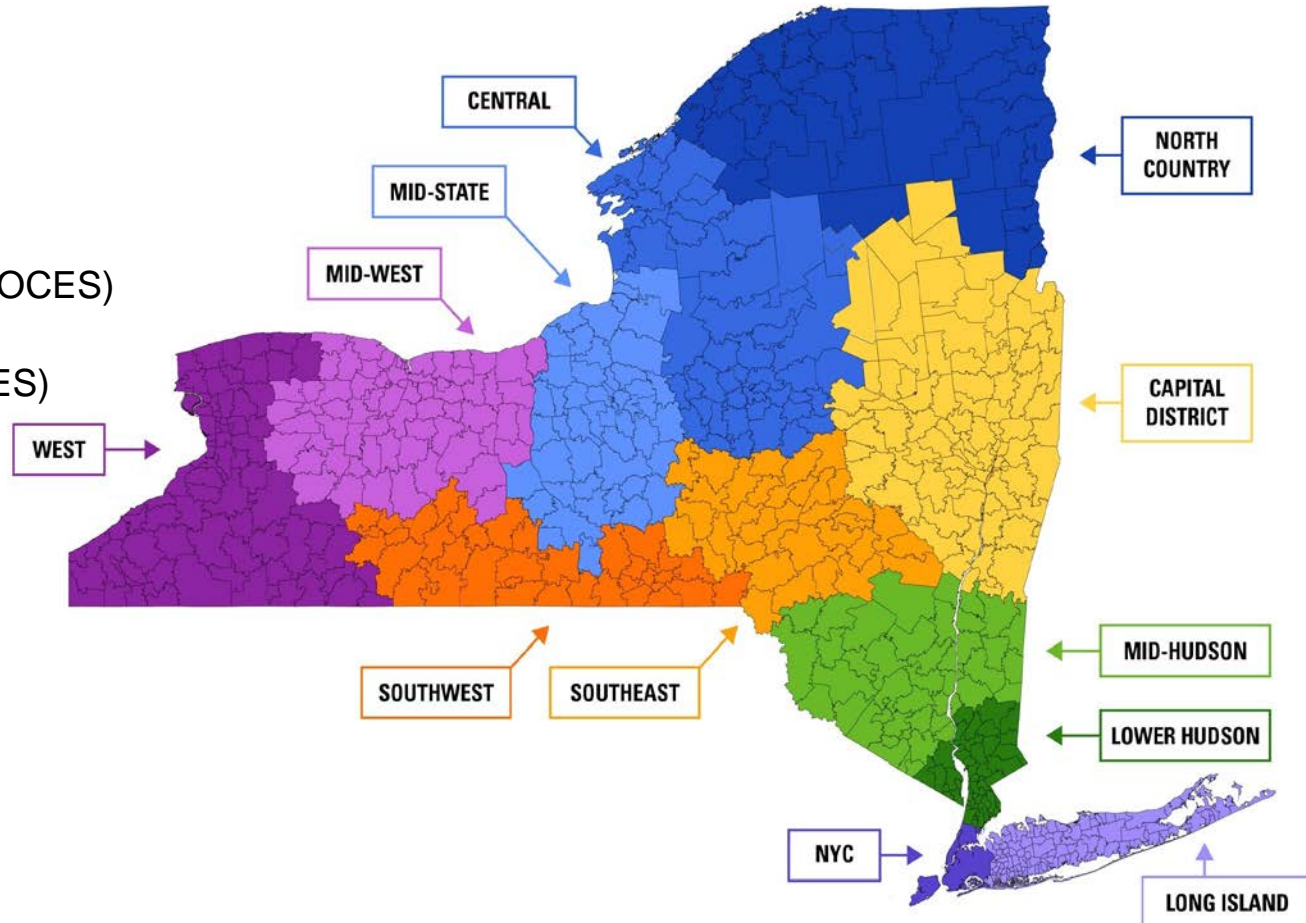

A Special Education Technical Assistance Partnership, or TAP, is a funded contract located within an institute of higher education that serves two primary purposes: provide tools and resources for families and professionals, as well as provide direct support to the professionals within the OSE Educational Partnership. The five TAPs include Data, Transition, Behavior, Academics, and Equity.
